

WASHINGTON ARRIVAL -- Vice President Richard M. Nixon is cheered by supporters on his return to Washington from California November 9. Mrs. Nixon and their daughters, Tricia and Julie, stand next to him. The Republican Party candidate for the office of U.S. President was defeated by his Democratic Party rival, Senator John F. Kennedy. Mr. Nixon voted in his home town, Whittier, California, and awaited the election results in Los Angeles. (60-19097)
