Senators Walter Mondale (left) and Hubert Humphrey applaud the inaugural address of Minnesota Governor Wendell Anderson in January 1975. Mondale organized and managed Humphrey's first campaign for the U.S. Senate in 1948. When Humphrey was elected Vice President under President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1964, Mondale was appointed to fill his unexpired Senate term and won election in 1966 and 1972 to retain the seat. Humphrey returned to the Senate in 1971. (76-1078)
