

TUGGING A TITAN -- Tugboats move America's newest nuclear-powered aircraft carrier, the Dwight D. Eisenhower, into the James River following christening ceremonies at Newport News, Virginia. The giant vessel, third of its class, is named for the late military leader and former President of the United States. The Enterprise and Nimitz are on fleet duty with the U.S. Navy. (75-2422-C)