

How a Famous Woman Keeps House

1. Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, widow of the former President of the United States and at present U.S. Delegate to the Sixth Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, spends a quiet hour in the informal living room of her country home at Val-Kill Farm not far from New York City. In the relaxed atmosphere of Val-Kill Mrs. Roosevelt spends week ends and summer holidays, usually surrounded by family and friends.
