

3

700
H

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S FIRST PRESS CONFERENCE BROADCAST 'LIVE' BY TV & RADIO

NEWSMEN -- President John F. Kennedy points to one of several correspondents who have arisen to ask a question during the new President's first press conference in Washington January 25. At right are: Pierre Salinger, the President's press secretary, and Andrew Hatcher, Mr. Salinger's assistant. This marked the first time a regular White House news meeting was broadcast "live" over television and radio. (61-28)

