JOE LOUIS REMEMBERED -- Former boxing champion Joe Louis is honored by boxing greats at his gravesite in Arlington National Cemetery on what would have been his 72nd birthday. Seated, from left, are Muhammad Ali, Sugar Ray Leonard, Michael Spinks and Joe Frazier. Joe Louis Barrow (1914-1981) held the world heavyweight boxing championship longer than any other man. He retired from the sport in 1949. (86-1722)
