

C1551F3

COLECCIÓN FOTOS EMBAJADA EE.UU.

MARINE CORPS BICENTENNIAL -- The Marine Corps War Memorial dominates the scene as President Gerald Ford speaks at ceremonies commemorating the military organization's 200th birthday. Mr. Ford called the Corps a "living monument to bravery and self-sacrifice." The Memorial, near the Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia, depicts the famous flag raising by the Marines on Iwo Jima during World War II. Faintly visible in the background is the Washington Monument.

(75-2413)

S1551F3