

CIV 536 F3

U.S. Department of State
Periodicals Service Unit IIA-IPS

MR-1812

Philadelphia: A Shrine of American Freedom

3. The home of Betsy Ross, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in which, according to American tradition, the first American flag was made. The house has been restored to its original condition, and a replica of the 13-starred banner (the flag now has 48 stars — one for each State) flies from the top window.

CIV 536 F3

133 (3) - En esta vieja casa de Filadelfia se hizo la primera bandera de los Estados Unidos, según la tradición.

CIV 536 F3

FLAGS

