

CLASSIFIED

CLASSIFIED

U.S. Department of State
Periodicals Service Section, INP, OLI

MR-776

An American Heritage: Colonial Williamsburg

2. Raleigh Tavern in Colonial Williamsburg, in the present southern State of Virginia; Williamsburg was the capital of the Virginia Colony in the new land of America during the 18th century. Originally built in 1742, burned in 1859, and reconstructed in 1930, the tavern was a center of society in early colonial times.

A-117 (1) - La taberna de Raleigh, en Williamsburg, centro de la vida social en tiempos coloniales.

HISTORY OF THE U.S. -

FAMOUS HOUSES