

CAPITAL MEMORIALS -- The "v" shaped Vietnam Veterans Memorial (foreground) has become one of the more heavily visited attractions in the Washington area. Dedicated in November, 1982, it contains the names of the nearly 58,000 Americans who died during the conflict in Southeast Asia. The rectangular Lincoln Memorial honors 16th President of the United States, Abraham Lincoln (1861-1865). In background is the Potomac River. (83-3595-C)
