

CAPTION:

C1753F1

DANCE THEATRE OF HARLEM performs "Piano Movers," an original work staged by a young American choreographer. The New York-based performing group is one of several U.S. metropolitan dance companies that is expanding its repertory with the assistance of talented choreographers, funded by a new U.S. Government-supported program. Photo (c) 1985 Jack Vartoogian. (No. 86-531)

UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

86 - 531