

C9555F1

COLECCIÓN FOTOS EMBAJADA EE.UU.

X

PULITZER PRIZES RECOGNIZE IDEALS IN JOURNALISM AND LETTERS

The 1959 Pulitzer prizes went to the outstanding U.S. journalists shown above, left to right: Top row, John Harold Brislin, of the Scranton Tribune and The Scrantonian in Pennsylvania, local reporting; Miss Mary Lou Werner, of the Evening Star, Washington, D. C., local reporting; and Howard Van Smith, of the Miami News in Florida, national reporting.

Bottom row, left to right: Joseph Martin and Philip Santora, of The New York Daily News, international reporting; and Ralph McGill, of the Atlanta Constitution in Georgia, editorial writing.

(Photo No. 59-8262. Accompanies Feature F-59-239.)

C6 AGO 1959

AWARDS AND DECORATIONS. - PULITZER PRIZE