

C95551-2

X

COLECCIÓN FOTOS EMBAJADA EE.UU.

PULITZER PRIZES RECOGNIZE IDEALS IN JOURNALISM AND LETTERS

Six winners of the 1959 Pulitzer prizes awarded in the United States to distinguished leaders in journalism, letters and musical composition are shown above, left to right: Top row, Arthur Walworth, author of the biography, "Woodrow Wilson, American Prophet"; Stanley Kunitz, author of "Selected Poems 1928-1958"; and Leonard D. White, who received a post-humous award for his volume of history, "The Republican Era: 1869-1901."

26 AGO 1959

Bottom row: Robert Lewis Taylor, author of the fictional "The Travels of Jimmie McPheeters"; Archibald MacLeish, author of the play, "J.B."; and John La Montaine, composer of "Concerto for Piano and Orchestra."

(Photo No. 59-8261. Accompanies Feature F-59-239.)

