

Captain Villamore, who challenged Japanese fighters again and again during the Philippine war, was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by General Douglas MacArthur. Many of the Filipinos fighting with United States forces were honored for their valor in resisting the Japanese invaders.
(SD-64108)

