

20 AGO. 1959

EXPLORER VI 'PADDLEWHEEL' SATELLITE LAUNCHED INTO ELLIPTICAL ORBIT

PAYLOAD INSTALLATION -- Explorer VI is installed atop the Thor-Able III rocket at Cape Canaveral prior to launching. The four power-generating solar paddles are folded beneath the 142-pound satellite. Here technicians assemble the fairing which covered the payload package during the flight to orbiting altitude. (59-11399)

SCIENCE.- ARTIFICIAL SATELLITE (EXPLORER)