

CZ1S2ZF1

COLECCIÓN FOTOS EMBAJADA EE.UU.

SPACECRAFT DESCENT -- The Apollo-16 command ship, suspended under three main parachutes, appears to be descending on one of the recovery helicopters in this unusual view. The spacecraft, with astronauts John Young, Charles Duke and Thomas Mattingly aboard, made a safe landing in the Pacific Ocean south of the equator near Christmas Island and within two kilometers of the recovery ship U.S.S. Ticonderoga.

CZ1S2ZF1

(72-1103)