

C 21538 F1

USA

-4

APOLLO-17 LANDING SITE -- This long range view shows the overall Apollo-17 landing site in the Taurus-Littrow area of the Moon. At left is the rover vehicle, at center is scientist-astronaut Jack Schmitt and the deployed ALSEP (Apollo lunar surface experiments package). The lunar lander sits at right and in background are South Massif and Family Mountains. Shadow in foreground is that of Gene Cernan, who took the picture.

C21538F1

(72-7346-C)

