

APOLLO-SOYUZ PATCH -- The American crew patch for the upcoming joint U.S.-Soviet space flight shows the two vehicles about to dock above the Earth with the Sun in the background. Surrounding the depiction are the words Apollo in English and Soyuz in Russian, plus stars representing the team members and their names. Astronauts Tom Stafford, Vance Brand and Donald (Deke) Slayton are due to link up with cosmonauts Aleksey Leonov and Valerly Kubasov in Earth orbit following launchings in July. (75-891-C)
