41-D INSIGNIA -- Crew patch for the twelfth Space Shuttle mission (41-D) features the third orbiter, Discovery, as it makes its maiden voyage. The ghost sailing vessel represents the orbiter's namesakes that have figured prominently in the history of exploration. Surnames of the six crew members encircle the scene. They are commander Henry Hartsfield, pilot Michael Coats, mission specialists Judith Resnik, Steven Hawley, Richard Mullane, and payload specialist Charles Walker.
