

C2453 F3

APOLLO-7 PICKUP -- Apollo-7 commander Wally Schirra is hoisted aboard a recovery helicopter after he and Astronauts Donn Eisele and Walt Cunningham brought their spacecraft down in the Atlantic Ocean on October 22. They splashed down on target about 1,600 kilometers east of Cape Kennedy and 370 kilometers south-southwest of Bermuda. The helicopters flew them to the nearby prime recovery carrier USS Essex.

(68-3489)

C2453 F3

