

NEW YORK TRIBUTE -- The three Apollo-8 astronauts wave to the crowd in New York City January 10 after receiving the City's Gold Medal for their historic flight around the Moon. From left are: Astronauts William Anders and Frank Borman; Mayor John Lindsay, who presented the awards; Astronaut James Lovell, and New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller, who later hosted a State Dinner honoring the spacemen.

(69-18)

