

APOLLO-8 FAMILIES APPLAUDED -- President Lyndon B. Johnson joins the three Apollo-8 astronauts in an applause for their families who were on hand for special White House ceremonies in Washington January 9. From left are William A. Anders, James A. Lovell, Frank Borman and the President. Earlier President Johnson awarded the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Distinguished Service Medal to the astronauts, calling them "history's boldest explorers."

(69-12)

