

'GOOD LUCK' FROM LAUNCH CREW -- "Good Luck from 2nd Shift" reads a sign on the Gemini-6 spacecraft as U.S. astronauts Wally Schirra (left) and Tom Stafford are inserted in preparation for lift-off December 15. Workmen at the launch complex at Cape Kennedy in Florida signed the message and also playfully attached an inflated rubber glove as a greeting to the spacemen. (65-3599)

DEC. 21 1965