

Thirteen children and three wives in Texas have special reason to scan the skies these days. Their fathers and husbands are aboard the Skylab space station in Earth orbit. The third and final crew to occupy the workshop was launched from Florida in mid-November for a mission that may last up to 84 days.
