

GEMINI-6 HOISTED ABOARD CARRIER -- The Gemini-6 spacecraft with U.S. astronauts Wally Schirra and Tom Stafford inside is hoisted aboard the carrier USS Wasp in the Atlantic southwest of Bermuda. The spacemen splashed down December 16 only about 12 miles (20 kilometers) from the Wasp, the prime recovery ship, after completing an historic 26-hour orbital flight during which they achieved rendezvous with the Gemini-7 spacecraft.
