

RELAY GOLD -- Members of the U.S. 4x100-meter relay team show their elation after setting a new world's record in winning the gold medal for the event at the 1983 World Track and Field Championships in Helsinki, Finland. From left are Emmit King, Carl Lewis, Willie Gault and Calvin Smith. Their time of 37.86 seconds beat the old record of 38.03 set by a United States team in Dusseldorf, West Germany six years earlier.
