

'FIRSTS' IN CYCLING -- Connie Carpenter (center) of Boulder, Colorado, proudly wears her gold medal after winning the women's 79-kilometer bicycle road race. Joining her on the victory stand are silver medalist Rebecca Twigg (left) of the United States and bronze medalist Sandra Schumacher of West Germany. This was the first-ever Olympic cycling race for women, the first-ever United States gold medal in Olympic cycling and the first United States Olympic cycling medal of any color since 1912.
