

GOLDEN SKATERS IN CALGARY

American athletes won two gold medals during the recent 1988 Winter Olympic Games in Calgary, Canada. Both were in skating. Brian Boitano, 24, of Sunnyvale (California), shows his form as he skates to first place in the men's individual figure skating competition. (88-29-C). Bonnie Blair (center) holds flowers aloft after receiving her gold medal on the victory stand. Blair, a 23-year-old from Champaign (Illinois), set a world record of 39.10 seconds in the women's 500-meter speed skating event. Flanking her on the stand are Christa Rothenburger (right) and Karin Kania, both from East Germany, winners of the silver and bronze medals respectively. (88-30-C)
