WHERE ARE THEY NOW --
These Olympic Champions
of the Past?

Do you recall the spectacular exploits of these athletes? Each one of them was an Olympic champion whose outstanding performance highlighted the Games in which he appeared. These photographs are of American athletes but every member nation can claim a number of such Olympic heroes. What these Americans look like today and what they are doing, many years after their Olympic achievements, is told in this set of pictures.

11-13 BUSTER CRABBE, ACTOR AND ATHLETE--Buster Crabbe's victory in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles led to a long acting career in motion pictures, which has made him a familiar personality in many countries. Today he divides his time between acting on television and operating a boy's camp, where he teaches swimming and aqua-lung diving. He keeps physically fit by exercising in this New York City gymnasium. (60-9749) (See related photo 60-9748)

BUSTER CRABBE, ACTOR Y ATLETA

El triunfo de Buster Crabbe en los Juegos Olímpicos celebrados en Los Angeles en 1932, le llevó a una larga carrera de actor cinematográfico, que le ha hecho popular en muchos países. Hoy día divide su tiempo entre sus actuaciones en la televisión y entre la dirección de un campamento juvenil, donde enseña a los muchachos a nadar y ~~skatear~~ a la práctica del deporte submarino. Se conserva físicamente en forma entrenándose en este gimnasio de la ciudad de Nueva York. (Véase la fotografía n° 9748, en la que aparece Buster Crabbe durante una de sus actuaciones deportivas.)
