

RUNNERS -- Edwin Moses (left) of Newport Beach, California, clears the final hurdle well ahead of his competitors to win the 400 meter hurdles at the U.S. Olympic Track & Field trials in Indianapolis, Indiana. This was the fastest time in the world in 1988 and the fastest time ever in the United States for this event. Carl Lewis (right) of Houston, Texas, competes in the 200 meter dash, in which he placed second, qualifying for the team going to Seoul. He placed first in both the 100 meter dash and long jump competitions, and also qualified for the 400 meter relay team.
