

U.S. OLYMPIC WALKER, CAPTAIN ADOLPH WEINACKER

SP-382

Capt. Adolph Weinacker of the U.S. Air Force, who never forgot how to walk after he learned to fly, crosses the finish line to win the U.S. National 50-kilometer walking championship at Baltimore, Maryland in mid-September. Weinacker of Detroit, Michigan, and his runners-up Leo Sjogren of Brooklyn, New York, second, and James Hansen of Buffalo, New York, third qualified to represent the United States in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne. (56-19866)

SPORTS - OLYMPIC GAMES