MEREDITH ELLIS, U.S. OLYMPIC HUNTER

SP-387

Meredith Ellis, 15-year-old secondary school girl of New York City who several weeks ago qualified for the U.S. Olympic track team which will compete at the Melbourne Games, demonstrates the form which brought her athletic success. One of the youngest girls ever to make the Olympic team, she is determined to win the 200-meter event in the 1956 Olympics. She plans to study physical education when she leaves secondary school.
