41-G EMBLEM -- Insignia for Space Shuttle Challenger mission 41-G includes the American flag and the Unity symbol known as the astronaut pin. The pin shows a trio of trajectories merging in infinite space, capped by a bright shining star and encircled by an elliptical wreath denoting orbital flight. At bottom are names of crewmembers Robert Crippen, commander; Kathryn Sullivan, David Leestma and Sally Ride, mission specialists; Jon McBride, pilot; and Marc Garneau (with Canadian flag) and Paul Scully-Power, payload specialists.
