

51-E EMBLEM & CREW -- The emblem (top) for Shuttle Challenger flight 51-E features a 13-star Colonial American Flag, symbolizing the continuity of technical achievement and progress since Colonial times, and the names of the crew. They are: Karol Bobko, Donald Williams, Rhea Seddon, S. David Griggs and Jeffrey Hoffman of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration; Patrick Baudry, representing the Centre National d'Etudes Spatiales of France, and U.S. Senator Jake Garn. The French Flag is displayed next to Baudry's name. Crew members (bottom, front row, from left) are: Karol Bobko, crew commander; Donald Williams, pilot; Rhea Seddon and Jeffrey Hoffman, mission specialists; (back row, from left) S. David Griggs, mission specialist, and Patrick Baudry and Senator Jake Garn, payload specialists.

(85-194-C)

C14547F2

FES INFORMATION AGENCY

-194-C

