

MEN OF THE SEA -- President Kennedy, like the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, loves sailing and the sea. These photos, taken in 1933 and 1962, show the two leaders in typical marine poses. Above, President Roosevelt waves from the schooner "Amberjack II" in the Atlantic Ocean off Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Below, President Kennedy takes the helm of the U.S. Coast Guard ship "Manitou" off John's Island, Maine. (63-1030)
