Catholic priests of the Dominican Order called (Sept. 22, 1949) on President Harry S. Truman of the United States at the White House, executive mansion in Washington, D. C. The priests were accompanied by United States Representative John W. McCormack of the State of Massachusetts. The Order, which has its headquarters in Rome, Italy, was meeting at the Dominican House of Studies, of Catholic University of America, in Washington. About 30 members of the Order from many parts of the world attended the meeting, the first ever held in the Western Hemisphere. The photograph shows (left to right) the Most Rev. Paul Sheehan of New York City, procurator general; the Very Rev. Timothy Sparks of Chicago in the Midwestern State of Illinois, representative of the Order to Rome; the Most Rev. Emmanuel Suarez of New York, master general; President Truman; the Very Rev. T. S. McDermott of New York City, provincial general; Representative McCormack, and the Very Rev. Emmanuel Mantoto of Rome, secretary general of the Order. (21-61230)
