TWO PRESIDENTS HAILED AT BORDER -- U.S. President Lyndon B. Johnson and Mexican President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz respond to an enthusiastic welcome as they ride through the streets of Juarez, Mexico. The two leaders were in the border city October 28 to participate in a ceremony returning some 175 hectares of land to Mexico. The land had come under U.S. control as a result of shifts in the Rio Grande river over the past century. Earlier, President and Mrs. Diaz Ordaz completed a three-day state visit in Washington.
