

C7S44F4

HAPPY OCCASION -- Kenneth Ivory is congratulated by President Gerald Ford after receiving a plaque naming him national "Boy of the Year" during ceremonies at the White House in Washington. The 17-year-old from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is senior class president at his high school and captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams. The award is presented by the Boys Clubs of America.

(75-913)

