AMERICAN HEROES -- Jean Nguyen and Clara Hale were cited as "American Heroes" by President Ronald Reagan as he delivered his State of the Union address in the House Chamber of the Capitol in Washington. They are shown in the balcony between the President's daughter Maureen (left) and wife Nancy, Cadet Nguyen, 22, left Vietnam 10 years earlier with her refugee family, knowing no English. In May, she is to graduate from the United States Military Academy at West Point (New York). Hale, 79, founded a home for children of drug addicts in New York City. In introducing them, Mr. Reagan said: "Jean, Mother Hale, your lives tell us that the oldest American saying is new again -- anything is possible in America if we have faith, the will and the heart."
