

CHEERY SALUTE -- President Ford and a young emulator hail Independence Day morning from a covered wagon at Valley Forge, testing ground for the Revolutionary army during a winter of suffering. A train of these "prairie schooners" from all 50 states recalled the epic of westward expansion.

(76-1622-C)