

ELECTIONS IN THE U.S., 1960

This chart indicates various kinds of elective officials at local, state and national levels. It shows their positions, terms of office and the citizens who are qualified to vote for each category of official. Not every official position listed will be filled in the election in 1960 but will be in other election years.

(Photo No. 60-236)