

C2S3/F4

NOV. 10 1964

Picture Story No.932

ELECTION DAY - D.C. AREA

Having registered at their local precinct stations a few months previously, citizens on election day face the moment of decision when they vote their choice for local, state and national political offices.

5-9 On the left, two poll-watchers, representing the Democratic and Republican parties, oversee the casting of ballots. Paper ballots are used in some areas, voting machines in others. (64-5041)

64-5041

Elections: 1964

5-9 A la izquierda dos encargados de vigilar la actuación de los votantes en un colegio electoral, representante cada uno de ellos de los partidos republicano y demócrata, ~~vig~~ supervisan la emisión de votos. En algunas regiones se utilizan papeletas, en otras máquinas de votar.

C2S3/F4