HAPPY HEADLINES -- Presidential aspirant George Bush examines a copy of the Des Moines Register heralding his victory over favored Ronald Reagan and other Republican Party rivals in the Iowa caucuses. With him is his son, Marvin (left). Iowa is the first of a string of states to hold primaries and caucuses leading up to the party national conventions. At the latter, candidates for president and vice president will be named for the November national election. The headlines read: "CARTER OVERWHELMS KENNEDY, BUSH STRENGTH JOLTS REAGAN."
