

Picture Story No. 681

INSIDE THE WHITE HOUSE

Seldom does the general public have a chance to see behind the scenes of a great public office. However, since John F. Kennedy became President of the United States, a number of photographers have made fascinatingly candid pictures inside the White House, many of which are presented in this picture story.

6-23 The President holds a meeting of his Science Advisory Committee -- a group of eminent scientists from many fields who help him evaluate programs and priorities. Smoking the inevitable pipe, its chairman, Jerome B. Wiesner, sits next to Mr. Kennedy. (61-4107)
