Picture Story No. 681

INSIDE THE WHITE HOUSE

Seldom does the general public have a chance to see behind the scenes of a great public office. However, since John F. Kennedy became President of the United States, a number of photographers have made fascinatingly candid pictures inside the White House, many of which are presented in this picture story.

9-23 Secretary of State Dean Rusk gives Mr. Kennedy the details of an international problem. Rusk and the President confer at the White House several times a week, and talk frequently on the telephone. (61-4099)
