INSIDE THE WHITE HOUSE

Seldom does the general public have a chance to see behind the scenes of a great public office. However, since John F. Kennedy became President of the United States, a number of photographers have made fascinatingly candid pictures inside the White House, many of which are presented in this picture story.

10-23 Senator John L. McClellan of Arkansas calls, at Mr. Kennedy's request, to discuss a plan for reorganizing several government agencies. The President keeps in close touch with key members of Congress, by telephone and through frequent conferences. (61-4105)
