

Picture Story No. 601

INSIDE THE WHITE HOUSE

Seldom does the general public have a chance to see behind the scenes of a great public office. However, since John F. Kennedy became President of the United States, a number of photographers have made fascinatingly candid pictures inside the White House, many of which are presented in this picture story.

4-23 The President (left) hurries away from a quick meeting about the atomic energy program, as White House aides Jerome B. Wiesner and Richard N. Goodwin, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission Glenn T. Seaborg and Special Assistant McGeorge Bundy review their conclusions.
