

5. INAUGURAL DEPARTURE -- President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson leave the White House on the morning of Inauguration Day, January 20, 1965, to go to the swearing-in ceremonies at the Capitol in Washington. At right is Senator B. Everett Jordan of North Carolina, chairman of the Joint Congressional Inaugural Committee. Senator Jordan escorted the First Family to the Capitol. (65-585)

ETS1592

