SIGNATURE TRAY -- President and Mrs. Johnson receive an engraved silver tray bearing the signatures of diplomats who accompanied them from Washington to Texas to attend the Hemisfair 68 exposition in San Antonio. The presentation was made during an evening cookout July 3 by Ambassador Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa (left) of Nicaragua, dean of the Washington diplomatic corps. The diplomats were from countries, mostly in Latin America, participating in the six-month fair. (68-2060)
