

50-10919

Mark Twain

CAOSU72

MARK TWAIN: EL LINCOLN DE LA LITERATURA NORTEAMERICANA

MARK TWAIN, seudónimo de Samuel Langhorne Clemens (1835-1910), novelista, humorista, periodista y conferenciante norteamericano, conocido, sobre todo, por sus novelas "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" y "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn". Sus humorísticas historias sobre la vida norteamericana en ~~el~~ la frontera en el siglo XIX, son notables por su vigor, sus rasgos de ingenio y por la facilidad del coloquio en idioma nativo.

SELECCIÓN FOTOS EMBAJADA EE.UU.

CAOSU72

MARK TWAIN: THE LINCOLN OF AMERICAN LITERATURE

Mark Twain, pseudonym of Samuel Langhorne Clemens (1835-1910). American novelist, humorist, journalist and lecturer, best known for his novels "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn." His humorous stories of American frontier life in the 19th century are marked by vigor, high-spirited exaggeration, and native colloquial idiom.

(Source: Library of Congress)

(Photo No. 50-10919. Accompanies Feature F-60-318.)

MARK TWAIN